WOMEN'S COMMUNITY WORK AS SACRED WORK

Exploring ways to sustain and deepen our work through wisdom, love and action

ARMENIAN CONVENTION CENTER, YEREVAN HALL
630 2ND AVE NEW YORK, NY 10017

An international, intergenerational group of women activists in different fields of social, economic, and environmental justice will offer their insights on how profound spiritual beliefs, from a diversity of traditions, and self-awareness are essential for carrying on effective transformative actions. This interactive session will include community building, meditative time, and discussion of how different women from different cultures incorporate a spiritual dimension into their busy lives.

"... When, however, the deepest and most grounded spiritual vision is married to a practical and pragmatic drive to transform all existing political, economic, and social institutions, a holy force - the power of wisdom and love in action - is born. This force I define as Sacred Activism."
