

Approved International Grant list 2023:

Grail Mexico

- Community development projects
- General support

Grail Philippines

- School fees for indigent teenage girls with whom the Grail is working “Grail Scholars”
- Community development projects with indigenous populations
- Health and nutrition programs with small children and lactating mothers
- General support

Grail South Africa

- Women’s Leadership Training Program—girls and women on biodiversity, indigeneity and community sustenance in KwaZulu Natal
- General support

Tanzania

- The Sofia Fund –offering safe harbor from female genital mutilation and early marriage, provides education and expanded life choices to 30 young Maasai girls
- Education at the St Teresa of Avila and St. Imelda schools in Mwangi
- Projects in partnership with local Maasai communities
- Community development projects
- General support

Uganda

- Health projects and equipment for medical facilities run by the Grail
- Educational projects and elementary and secondary schools run by the Grail
- Community development projects
- General support

International Solidarity Fund (ISF)

- Grail countries and individuals contribute annually to the ISF so that the duly elected international Leadership (ILT) has funds available for emergency needs in specific countries.

Stand-Alone Initiatives not Administered by a Grail NLT

- TFT In Practice (formerly known as Training for Transformation) and Anne Hope Legacy Fund—training for community development based in South Africa
- Healthcare through the Neema Grail Health Centre—based in Tanzania

In addition, The Grail in the US as an organization may contribute financially to assist in the aftermath of disaster, such as climate-related catastrophes or civic violence.

“Called by our spiritual values,
The Grail envisions a world of peace, justice, and renewal of the earth, brought about by women working together as catalysts for change”

Our Mission Goals

The Grail in the U.S. empowers women to work for world transformation:

- building bridges among diverse faith traditions and spiritual paths
- advancing peace, justice and a world free from military dominance
- fostering international exchange and solidarity
- challenging economic systems that put at risk the most vulnerable, especially women and children
- creating communities for a sustainable future
- celebrating the arts as a means for personal and societal transformation

We are bonded in action, solidarity, and faith, as part of The Grail worldwide in 20+ countries, as individuals and Grail groups, interconnecting regionally, nationally and internationally.

The Grail in the US recognizes and financially supports the ongoing work of our Grail sisters in the form of grants in order to advance the above 6 mission goals. All projects recognized by the National Leadership of the US Grail are already authorized by the National Grail leadership in the respective countries.

Generally, the tax rules require that a charity control the use of gifts received in order to be tax deductible as a charitable contribution. While The Grail fully expects to use your gift in a manner consistent with your wishes, we reserve the right to determine use of your gift consistent with our mission and needs. Your gift is tax deductible as a charitable contribution subject to any other limitations generally applicable to charitable gifts. In addition, there are costs associated with processing this gift therefore, an administrative fee will be deducted.