A Different Kind of Team Building

By The Grail

Are you considering an activity to reconnect your team? Maybe, if you are like many of our team, the idea of rock climbing, trust falls, and rope bridges strike dread not warm fuzzies.

The Grail created the perfect activity with you in mind: local, covid-safe, and budget-friendly. Your group will work destress, have some friendly competition, and enjoy 70 acres of nature.

Cost: $30 per person
Size: Prefer groups of no more than ten (can work with larger groups)
Length: 3 hours+

Components:

1. Small team competitive birdwatching
   Break into groups of 2 or 3 and set out across 70 acres of mixed use grounds and trails to track 5 common and 5 not-so-common birds. Team with most sightings wins!

2. Hands on learning (either residential composting or agroforestry)
   Come back together in our outdoor Learning Lab for a hands on session with Farm/Land Coordinator, Grail member and permaculture expert, Mary Lu Lageman to learn about residential composting or agroforestry

3. Meditation Labyrinth
   Move to the Oratory—an 1812 cattle barn converted in 1961 by local liturgical artist William Schickel into the spiritual home of The Grail—to learn basic meditation via the outdoor labyrinth; if inclement weather, we will use the indoor labyrinth (a Chartres design)

Afterwards, you are welcome to bring food for a shared meal either picnic style or in our meeting space in the Oratory.

To learn more or make a reservation for A Different Kind of Team Building email: office@grail-us.org